

ESIL Interest Group on International Legal Theory Workshop
at the Tenth ESIL Anniversary Conference, Vienna

Extra-Legal Dynamics of International Legal Theory

Programme

Wednesday, 3 September 2014

University of Vienna Faculty of Law, Lecture Room U 12

1430–1630 Panel 1 Substance

Chair: Jörg Kammerhofer (University of Freiburg)

Panellists (15 minutes each)

- Ntina Tzouvala (University of Durham), Resisting the TTIP: What Role for International Legal Theory?
- Antonio Cardesa-Salzmann (Universitat Rovira i Virgili, Tarragona), Global Constitutionalism, TWAIL, or Pluralism? Exploring new Interdisciplinary Methodologies to cope with the Global Ecological Crisis
- Valentin Jeutner (University of Cambridge), Legal ‘Cat States’? A Comparative Analysis of Irresolvable Norm Conflicts

Group discussion

1630–1650 Break

1650–1850 Panel 2 Institutions

Chair: Aeyal Gross (Tel Aviv University)

Panellists (15 minutes each)

- Ekaterina Yahyaoui Krivenko (National University of Ireland), International Legal Theory: Beyond Disciplinarity?
- Geoff Gordon (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam), The Universal Turn in Transnationalism
- Tanja E Aalberts and Ingo Venzke (Universiteit van Amsterdam), On the Anxieties of Interdisciplinarity: Causes, Consequences, and Possible Relief

Group discussion

1930–2230 Informal Drinks and Dinner, Venue TBC